To the
Manager U. S. Mint,

Sir:

I have in my possession two certificates of deposit in the U. S. Mint in Philadelphia which came into my possession some time ago in the course of business. They were given in 1845 to Orin W. Simmons and amount to a little over $800. face value. Before sending them to the mint to be redeemed I am desirous of knowing whether the U. S. pays interest on mint deposits and if so how much. An early answer will oblige

Yours respectfully,
